The B Squad

The team was formed in 2005 by owner / trainer Matt Bilderback with the adoption of Buddy Wheelz. The team has since grown with the addition of Ballistic Bella. Now meet the members:

Matt aka "Thrower of Plastic"

Matt has been training, competing, and performing canine disc since 2005. With the use of positive training methods and his unique throwing styles, Matt has competed and wowed crowds throughout the Midwest.

Buddy Wheelz aka "Big B"

Buddy is a five year old border collie mix rescued at the age of one. He is gifted with incredible drive and intelligence and the ability to catch just about any type of throw imaginable. Compounded with this is his incredible speed which makes him truly fun to watch. Buddy's career accomplishments include International and World Championship placeholder, multiple time world and national finalist. He is a Quadruped™ winner and multiple longest catch recipient with an astonishing all time placeholder for longest all time catch of 81 yards.

Ballistic Bella aka "Little Wigglebutt"

Bella is an explosive little bundle of energy, and athletic ability. Bound in her 25lb frame, her innate athletic ability for leaping and flipping is accelerated by her unique flair and style. Bella joined the team as a pup and quickly became a fierce entertainer and competitor. She is a Miniature Australian Shepherd but, there is nothing miniature about her game. Bella's accomplishments in her short career include Nationals Champion, National finals competitor, and competitor on the nationally televised show Purina Incredible Dog Challenge.
